

The law is important.

It is your responsibility to obey to the law.

Teenagers are most likely to commit crimes.

Think of the consequences before you act.

To disobey the law is to hurt the country.

Help keep it safe.

And protect your loved ones.

Do not commit crimes. Respect the environment. Do not dump garbages. Respect human rights. Do not discriminate. Respect your services. Pay your taxes. Help others do so too.